

Sark Corporate

February 2025

Why go to Sark for a corporate retreat?

Sark is the undisputed 'jewel' of the Channel Islands. A small, self-governing island haven with winding country lanes, manicured pastureland and untouched dramatic clifftop scenery.

Sark has quirks and its 500 residents and 60,000 visitors each year love them. Sark gives those that visit the opportunity to take a step back, take a breath and re-charge.

DARK SKY

- The world's first dark sky island with no light pollution
- Country lanes have no street lights. Use torches or the moonlight to guide your way

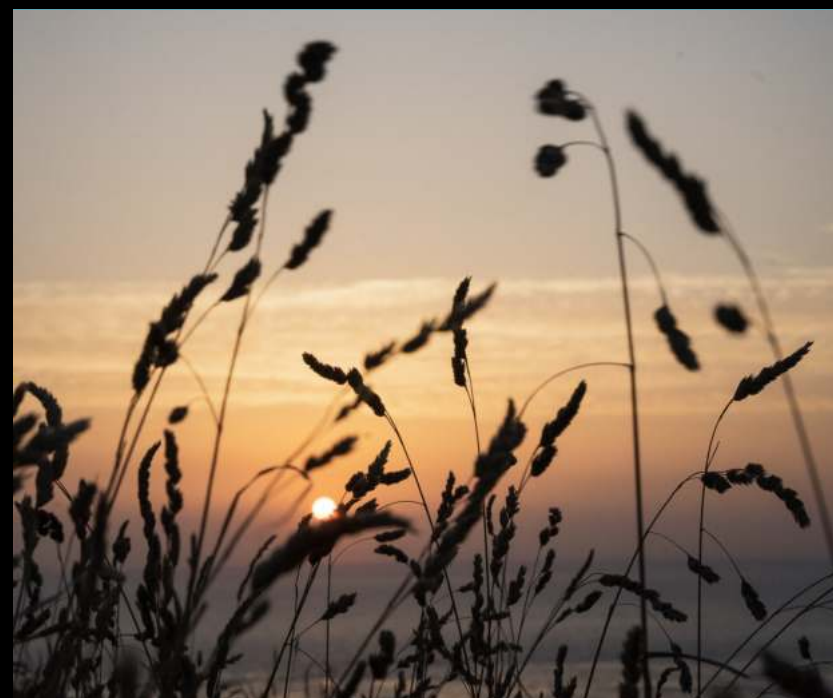

NO CARS

- Residents and visitors roam on foot or by bicycle
- Horse and cart as the primary vehicular transport
- No traffic, no pollution, no noise

AIRPLANES

- No airplanes and their noise to fly over the island
- No drones to spoil the serenity
- The only way to reach the island is by boat

The Dixcart Hotel

The stone buildings of The Dixcart Hotel were lovingly refurbished in 2014 to offer modern and comfortable accommodation on the island.

Exclusive bookings available from £4,495. Get in touch to see what package we can offer you.

- The Dixcart Hotel occupies the south side of the enchanted Dixcart Valley above the boating favourite, Dixcart Bay
- 18 rooms with a large ballroom/ conference suite, landscaped gardens and cosy reception areas which were fully refurbished in 2014

- Direct access to Sark's most popular sandy swimming beach, Dixcart Bay

- Hugo's, a regular haunt of Victor Hugo, one of the 3 bars on the Island is our on site bistro serving food and drinks 7 days a week.

La Moinerie Village

Situated on Sark's dramatic and pristine west coast, La Moinerie Village remains a firm favourite for all who visit.

- La Moinerie Village, the existing hotel is built upon the foundations of an ancient monastery
- Made up 14 rooms, 9 of which are lodges sleeping up to 5 people

- Cliff-top sites such as our summer bar area 'Gusty's' offer panoramic views towards Guernsey, Jethou and Herm captivating guests with sunset spectacles each evening

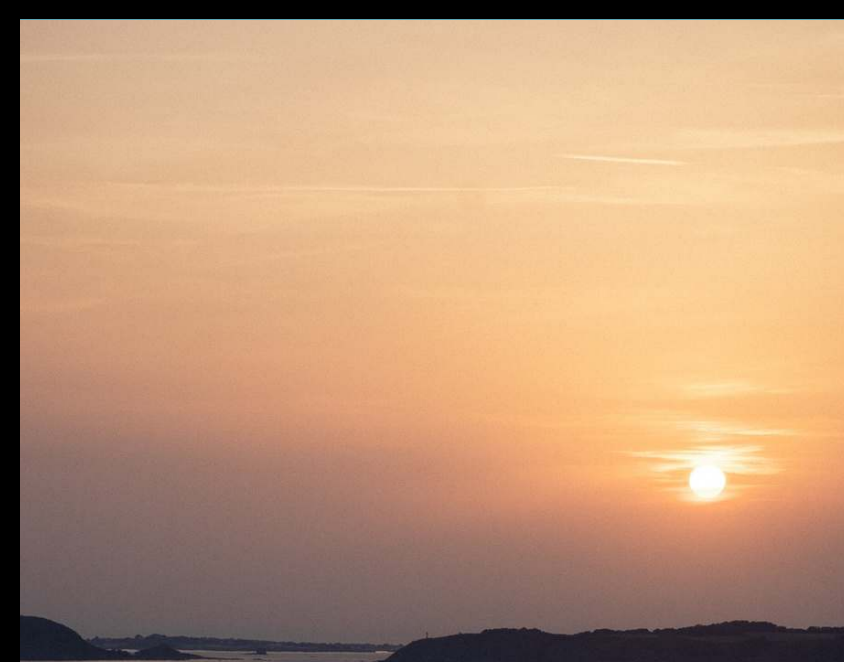

- Direct and private access to one of Sark's most elusive beaches and the famous 'Window in the Rock'

- Lose yourself in the west coasts untouched forests and farmland
